

Easy Guide to Retirement-Online.com

Hello! I'm Wendy and I own this website. I wear many hats as the writer, webmaster, chief wendifier (making many complex topics simple, that's me).

Most importantly, of course, I am an absolute retirement enthusiast.
Love-Love-Love it!

After 35 years with local government, the last 25 as the Retirement Manager, I love helping people retire. I really do. The problem is that all answers on the site, as you'd guess, are kinda generic as I don't know who is asking them, right? Details matter. For personal help, consider my personalized Coaching (sometimes, even just the free consult will do the trick).

R-O is a fairly large site, so let me explain just a few things:

- Retirement Library -

My Retirement Library has loads of retirement info on every topic imaginable. I hope my work helps you find the answers you need. Many pages are full of questions to ask yourself to determine your own needs, and then your new direction!

You can also use the Search box at the top right column of my website to find any topic on my site. You'll also see the categories running down the right column, just click on any of them.

● Retirement Happiness Project -

I started the Happiness Project in November 2015, so this is new... I am hoping to help more retirees by changing the negative aging and retirement mindsets out there. We have so much more life to live... let's live in Gratitude, not anxiety!

● Retirement Insider -

You can join my Retirement Outreach newsletter... and get my Top Ten Reasons to Retire ebook. You will get e-newsletters with new retiree submissions to the site and my own new articles, tutorials, or resources. Retirees always comment on the submissions to help one another. It's time to HELP & BE HELPED.

● Retirement Community -

This is a private Retirement Community of over 1400 retirees, (age 50-80+) who simply chat about life. Find new friends (privately via email, or in the community with other retirees). They share jokes, memories, and a whole lot more... but in a safe environment. I am beginning to add techy tutorials and a Home Business group, for those interested in learning more. I approve every new member and also delete anyone who is really misbehaving (yes, it still happens even in retirement... Grin!) to keep it fresh and safe! Very time consuming, but rewarding to those having fun! There is a fee to join, but it's really low, and helps me provide the website and community.

● Need Income? Consider an Home Business -

This extension of my site is about Home Business, either offering your own services or building a blog/website to help others in whatever area of knowledge you care to share. We all have oodles of knowledge in our heads to offer... and it's really not as hard as you imagine it to be. It's fun, a new mental challenge, and gives you an outlet to new people in your life. Really!

● Submit your Story or Ask for Help/Opinions -

This is the page where you can Submit your own Story, or Ask for Help from other Retirees. We want to hear about:

- Your retirement success (whatever your definition for “success” is)
- Your retirement failures (so we can help with suggestions)
- ...and anything else you’d like to share with retirees (memories, hobbies, fun ideas to keep busy... )

● Retirement Coach -

I have helped retirees for three decades now (wow, that sounds “old”.. yikes!) - 25 years with local government and now 5 years retired and working online. As a Retirement Coach, I can help you move past the retirement transition phase of life, if you are stuck.

I hope my easy guide to my big website helps you find whatever you need!
